

The Senate, on motion of Senator Fountain, passed.

June 4, 1873.]

SENATE JOURNAL.

1165

notwithstanding the objections of the Governor, a bill authorizing the printing of the laws, both general and special, in the German and Spanish languages, and a bill supplementary to and explanatory of the same, by the following vote:

Yeas—Senators Ball, Broughton, Cole, Dohoney, Ford, Finlay, Flanagan, Fountain, Franks, Hall, King, Pyle, Ruby, Saylor, Shelley, Tendick and Mr. President—17.

Nays—Senators Dillard, Gaines, Rawson, Swift, Tracy and Word—6.

The Chair announced Senators Finlay, Tracy and Shelley, a committee to wait on the Governor and inform him that the Senate would adjourn at 12 o'clock M., and ask if he had any further communications for this body.